Announcements:

We have the privilege of celebrating the Lord’s Supper today. We humbly ask that only members of our church family (WELS or ELS) come forward for communion. The Bible teaches that when you take communion at a church, you are saying you agree with that church’s teachings. We don’t want to put anyone in a position of saying they agree with our teachings without knowing what we believe as a church family. If you have questions, please speak to the Pastor.

If you prefer grape juice instead of wine for Holy Communion, some will be available in the individual cups (the white in center) at both churches.

Sunday School classes have concluded until September. We thank our teachers for using their time and talents to teach Jesus’ lambs. At Trinity: Andrea & Joel Berg, David Bilitz, and Linda Ewert. At St. John’s: Mika Courtney & Kelly Koplen, Taryn Gartner & Lindsey Schlaak, and Sandy Treanor.

St. John’s and Trinity each have a graduate from high school this year: Kelly Koplen from JWP and Emy Youngerberg from Little Country School. We congratulate them and wish them God’s blessings on their future endeavors.

Our morning Bible Studies will resume on Sunday (11 am) at St. John’s and on Tuesday (9 am) at Trinity. We will continue our series A Walk Through the Bible with Genesis 29-31: Jacob and Laban.

Everyone is welcome to join us for worship at Trinity on Thursday at 7:00 pm. It will be the same as the up-coming Sunday service. Our Thursday night services will continue until Labor Day.
June calendars and new Meditations (including large print) are available in the entryway. We thank Tom Marzinske for forwarding our old Meditations to the Prison Ministry. You can drop yours off in the entryway.
